NUMB. 3181

SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1744.

Berlin, May 5.

THE Baron de Horn, Envoy from Sweden, and Chamberlain to his Royal Swediſh Highneſs, arriv'd here on the 2d, in order to demand the Princeſs Ulrica in Marriage for his Maſter. The French Miniſter at this Court affects to treat all Mention of Expeditions into Germany as downright Chiſ...ns; but, in the mean time, he propagates, with great ...duſtry, a Sort of Doctrine that ſeems expreſsly cal...lated to ſerve a different Purpoſe; for as ſoon as he ...ew that the Earl of Hyndford had demanded the Suc...urs ſtipulated by Treaties, he immediately aſſerted ...ery where, that thoſe Treaties did not reach the pre...t Caſe; becauſe defenſive Alliances imply, that the ...wers with whom they are made, ſhall not enter into ...enſive Wars; for, otherwiſe, every defenſive Alliance ...ight be turn'd into an offenſive one, by either of the ...ntracting Parties. This Doctrine is not at all reliſh'd ... Court; and it is ſaid, an Anſwer to the French Mi...ter's Memorial upon this Subject will be quickly ...ented.

Paris, May 5. It is ſaid, that a Propoſal has been a...dy made in Council, and has been there approved, ... the raiſing a new Militia of 40,000 Men. The ...nner in which it is to be done, is kept a great Secret; ...ars expected, that the Declaration of War againſt the ...g of Sardinia would have been publiſhed at the ſame ...e with that againſt the Queen of Hungary; and ... poſtponing it, has occaſioned many Speculations. ...e People infer from hence, that Affairs have not ...e ſo well in Italy as the Court would have the ...rld believe; while others attribute that Meaſure to ... Reſolution taken by the Miniſtry, to make his Sar...an Majeſty ſome new Propoſals; and it is even ...iſper'd, that the Exchange of his Duchy of Savoy, ...that of Milan, by Ceſſion, from the Crown of Spain.

Hague, May 13. According to the laſt Letters from ...drid, their Catholick Majeſties have adviſed the King ...the Two Sicilies to build a new Citadel at Naples, ...rder to awe that City, and keep it within the Bounds ... Obedience; exhorting him not to truſt to the warm ...eſſions of Loyalty made by the Inhabitants, who, ...y they arrogate to themſelves the Title of the moſt ...thful, have, in Fact, ſhewn themſelves the moſt ...bleſs, Subjects in Europe. All our Letters from ...in agree, that the French have no Reaſon to boaſt ...their Succeſs; and that his Sardinian Majeſty expected ...einforcement of 12,000 Auſtrians, to enable him to ...e Battle to the Army of the combined Crowns; after ...y ſhall have weakned themſelves, by forcing the reſt ...the Paſſages into his Dominions.

IRELAND.

Limerick, May 1. Laſt Saturday Mr. James Farloe, who ...s try'd and convicted at the laſt Aſſizes, for the Mur... of Mr. John Warrick, was executed, purſuant to ...Sentence. He behaved with the greateſt Decency, ...nitence, and Devotion, during his Confinement; par...larly from the Time of his Conviction.

Dublin, May 5. We hear, that two French Veſſels, ...t had unladed their Cargoes in the Iſle of Man, have ...n ſeized there for the Uſe of his Majeſty.

Laſt Wedneſday Morning, between Seven and Eight ...lock, as Mr. Abraham Wilkinſon, ſen. an eminent ...rchant in Golden Lane, was getting ready to go to ... Fair of Kells, from Navan, where he lodged the ...ght before; one of his Piſtols unfortunately dropt ... of his Hand, and diſcharged into his Bowels; of ...ich Accident he died in about half an Hour, greatly ...mented by all his Acquaintance; to whom he had ...roved himſelf, in every Station, thro' a Courſe of ...conſiderably large and extenſive Dealings.

On Thurſday Morning the Right Hon. William Co..., Eſq; arrived here, by the Lovel Packet-boat, from ...yhead.

A few Days ſince a charitable Lady at London, who ...ired to be concealed, remitted to Alderman Dawſon ...l. for the Uſe of the Incorporated Society of Dublin, ... promoting Engliſh Proteſtant Working Schools in ... Kingdom; which was accordingly paid into the ...ds of his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ...aſurer of the ſaid Society.

A few Days ago a moſt cruel Murder was committed ... the Mote, in the County of Weſtmeath, by a Pedlar; ...o being called upon by one Mrs. Pilkington, to help ... to drive a ſtrange Horſe out of her Field, conceived ...wicked Deſire to lie with her; and upon her reſiſting him, and very probably, ſtriking him, for ſo very impudent an Attempt, he mangled her terribly, and at laſt ſtrangled her with a Handkerchief; there were found about him three Engliſh Shillings, and a Snuff-box that belonged to her, when he was taken; he being diſcovered very ſoon after he had committed the Fact. There are ſome Circumſtances talked of, too ſhocking to be related. It is ſaid he confeſſes the Crime.

That moſt worthy Patriot, the Rev. Dr. Madden, hath ſubſcribed 10l. a Year, to the Society for promoting an Enquiry into the antient and preſent State of the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices have appointed Edward Croker, of Raleighſtown, Eſq; to be Deputy-Governor of the County of Limerick, and Colonel of an Independent Troop for the ſaid County.

Extract of a private Letter from Wexford, May 2.

'The Privateer that was ſeen off Loftus-Hall, laſt 'Sunday, is a large Ship, and came from the Weſtward, 'with a ſtrong Gale Northerly; ſhe made two or three 'Tacks up into the Harbour's Mouth, to look into it, 'but found nothing. She bore down to the Saltee 'Iſlands, and when about half Way, ſhe ſaw a Ship 'coming cloſe along Shore from the Weſtward, to 'which ſhe gave Chace; but the Ship had the good 'Fortune to get into the Harbour before ſhe came up. 'Juſt as ſhe came off the Middle of it, ſhe ſaw a large 'Boat coming out, which kept cloſe to the Land; ſhe 'chaſed her, threw out her French Colours, and fired 'two Cannon at her; but finding ſhe could not come 'near enough to the Shore to take her, ſtood away to 'the Eaſtward, and is now in St. George's Channel.'
